The Dark Side (x10)

Another cold and lonely rainy day comes to an end I have to clear my mind before I sleep or else I tend To close my eyes and realize there's nothing left but light
I need shadow I need darkness to help me through the night

The Dark Side (x6)

Another cold and lonely Sunday morning hurts my eyes
Cold water hits my face only get up to see the skies I raise my head look up and unsupply the gods have gone
I'm still in search for darkness so I can't till wait till dawn

The Dark Side (x10)
