I cannot stand the way you think
And what's more i cannot stand the way you see me
And i cannot stand that you would state your belief
Open eyes, realize i'm not of your mind

How could you go and insinuate
That i would be akin to your hate
I don't know how you could believe

I am not one of you
Please don't treat me kindly
You don't even know my views
How could you dare define me
I am not one of you
Please don't treat me like you do

Well i don't understand your ways
And i don't understand where your darkness comes from
And you don't understand that i would disagree
You and i will never find a compromise

If you could stand here in my place
Would all your anger be erased
Or would you still choose to believe

I am not one of you
Please don't treat me kindly
You don't even know my truth
How could you dare define me
I am not one of you
Though you think i might be
I am not one of you
Please don't treat me like you do

Please don't treat me kindly
How can you dare define me
I am not what you think
Please don't think
Don't think of me
I am not one of you
