Where is your daughter?
Did you know she was out at the club last night
Getting high with her new Fall friends?
Is that what you taught her?
Did you know she's afraid and she hates ballet
But she dances alone to The Violent Femmes?

And she loves when it rains,
'Cuz it washes away
All the tears and the pain
And she dreams of a place far away

And did you know that she's a misfit
And she's on her way to Hollywood
To fit in with the misfits
Cuz they all fit in in Hollywood?

Yeah, she's a misfit
And she's on her way to Hollywood
To fit in with the misfits
'Cuz we all fit in in Hollywood

Hollywood, Hollywood

Where is your lover?
Do you hear when he cries what he's holding inside
And the song that he sings to himself?
Does he love another?
Did you know that he plays everytime you're away
The guitar that sits on the shelf?

And he loves when it rains
'Cuz it washes away
All the tears and the pain
As he dreams of a place far away

And did you know that he's a misfit
And he's on his way to Hollywood
To fit in with the misfits
'Cuz they all fit in in Hollywood

Yeah, he's a misfit
And he's on his way to Hollywood
To fit in with the misfits
'Cuz we all fit in in Hollywood

Yeah, he's a misfit
Yeah, she's a misfit
And what's a misfit?
It's just a mis-fit, oh yeah

And did you know that she's a misfit
And she's on her way to Hollywood
To fit in with the misfits
Cuz they all fit in in Hollywood?

Yeah, she's a misfit
And she's on her way to Hollywood
To fit in with the misfits
'Cuz we all fit in in Hollywood

Did you know that he's a misfit
And he's on his way to Hollywood
To fit in with the misfits
'Cuz they all fit in in Hollywood

Yeah, he's a misfit
And he's on his way to Hollywood
To fit in with the misfits
'Cuz we all fit in in Hollywood

Hollywood, Hollywood
