Strange
there's comfort in lies
Ways
for you to get by

I can feel your pain
I can hear you breaking
all your hopes and fears
are here for the taking

They need you
but they don't give a fuck about
They bleed you
but they don't give a fuck about
They feed you
the lies, you want to hear it
but they don't care
They say shit
but they don't give a fuck about
They play shit
but they don't give a fuck about
They fake shit
and say they really wanna
but they don't care

They don't care

Fame
you follow it blind You're shamed
it not with your kind

I can feel your pain
I can hear you breaking
are here for the taking

They need you
but they don't give a fuck about
They bleed you
but they don't give a fuck about

They feed you
the lies, you want to hear it
but they don't care
They say shit
but they don't give a fuck about
They play shit
but they don't give a fuck about
They fake shit
and say they really wanna
but they don't care

They need you
they bleed you
but they don't care

They say shit
and they play shit
and they fake it
but they don't care

And all the knowledge in the world couldn't save you from it
All your ignorance is bliss and that's the way they want it And they will level a traitor if you speak out of turn Ain't got no rights if you fight at the stake you will burn The novelty of your freedom it doesn't even exist You're just a slave to the wage you're just a hand over fist You ain't got nothin' but bluffin', front and try to break out
You're just a pawn
and they don't give a fuck about

They need you
but not your opinion

They'll say what you want
but they don't care
