I came from second universe.
I've travelled far.
Oh, mankind, I'm not pleased.
Is this the way you're supposed to be?

You're free from the guilt.
Doesn't anyone care anymore?
Killing your own world, there's nothing to stop you
Can't you see what you're doing?
It's gotta end or nothing will be left

Dying... planet!
Mother Nature bleeding, She will die.
Burning... planet!
Burning lives and torching wilderness.

I'm scraping out in soil
But there's no where to grow.
People, but you won't quit.
No!

Ready to strike back.
Ready for death.
Armageddon waits near.
The only rules of this war:
You've gotta go on 'til you die.

We're entering an Age of Money.
Power is all you breed.
Praying to god who don't exist.
Can't you see what you're doing?
It's gotta end, or nothing will be left

Dying... planet!
Mother Nature bleeding, She will die.
Burning... planet!
Burning lives and torching wilderness.
