Is this the end of time
And how come we are still killing ourselves?
Going back and forth, loose control
Always try to open new doors

Don't get too close, you might disappear
They will bury your bones in the sand
Break away from the waves
Into the oceans of lies

[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]

All those lies
All those lies is what you get
All those lies
All those lies is what they're feeding to you

All those lies
All those lies that will stop your quest
All those lies
All those lies, it's a dead end

Don't cry to freedom for survival
It's a one way ticket to death
Face reality
End up without traces

Don't get too close, you will disappear
They will break your bones into sand
How come [Incomprehensible]?
Why am I made this way?

All those lies
All those lies is all you're given
All those lies
All those lies is what they're feeding to you

All those lies
All those lies is what will stop your quest
All those lies
All those lies, it's a dead end

All those lies
All those lies
