Out they come to your rescue,
To drag you off the street
They give you food and shelter
They'll leave you to bleed.

They take all your money,
Destroy all your goals
They're killing for religion.
And they go looking for more

Christians cover the earth,
They are waiting for rebirth
A relief from this labor
But they need a slave to do the work

You want an answer
They will use you 'til you die
They brainwash and convince you
That you will end up in paradise

That thing is old
They steal your mind, too
Down and out
You can't see another way through

Another way to bullshit the youth
To purge all their lives
They fill you up with this bullshit
They will make you lie

Christians cover the earth,
They are waiting for rebirth.
A relief from this labor
But they need a slave to do the work

You want an answer
They will use you 'til you die
They brainwash and convince you
That you will end up in paradise

Ahh!

Christians cover the earth,
They are waiting for rebirth.
A relief from this labor
But they need a slave to do the work

You want an answer
They will use you 'til you die
They brainwash and convince you
You will end up in paradise

Liar!
