Sacrificed and bruised for eternal life
By the cross he will die
In the name of evil
Lucifer rules the world, yeah

You and me and the holy ghost
We destroy all the unholy souls

Your fate is fulfilled
You live your life once more
Why are you dying?
You're standing here like before

Take my hand, I show you what pleasure is Come with me to Satan's dreamland
Welcome to my Reich, where nothing's holy ground
I scheme your soul

To escape is to die
