"Rose On My Grave"

Nobody knows
What I'm looking for
Nobody cares
What I feel
My life is the end of something
Something that never begins
Something grow inside me
Maybe a terrible nightmare
Tears fall like rain
Like rain
And the world is invited
To enjoy in all my madness
And breathe for the last time
The rose that you put on my grave
And feel the wind through your hair
Like a hand who wants to hang you
From the sky...
