Finding comfort is hard in a world that rips out your heart.
Everyday is a battleground, a battle to the ground, a battle for no one.
Time is smoving faster and faster
And further away from the goals you attain.
Every dream is a distant scene from the past
You've suppressed to be free of all the pain.

Haunts me deep, can't get enough sleep
Can't eat, can't focus at all.
Haunts me deep, can't get enough sleep
Can't eat, can't focus at all anymore.

Oh please help me endure
Guide me to land, I can't seem to see anymore.
Oh my last and only wish is so clear;
Don't make me end up on the shore without my name and my face.

I'm all fed up with lies, I'm all fed up with empty hope.
Always waiting for someone to save me.
All fed up with lies, all fed up with hope
Waiting for someone to save me.
