Can I lay my wings up high? ?Ten long years of bein' ugly, ?But tonight we' ll learn to fly like angels. ?The morning comes and goes,

We try, ?Across the valley with dreams that weigh us
down. ?She falls,

I soar too high and crash the sun.?

Say goodbye

Thank you for what you've given me'In the hollow we will make it.?

So divine

The lonely hearts club will never fade away'Tonight we dance.

?Dear God,

I wrote a letter

Drenched in my own blood. ?To see, I wrote a message that read, "I love"?And I'm thanking you for loving me (thanking you).?And I'm thanking you for loving me (thanking you).

?A first kiss; a last goodbye, ?A paper cut that's cold and dead to me. ?Open up the window, and see the coffin, ?Remember who we were and where we go tonight, ?Just like the movies we grow (we grow)

?Say goodbye

Thank you for what you've given me'In the hollow we will make it.?

So divine

The lonely hearts club will never fade away'Tonight we dance.

?And I'm thanking you for loving me (thanking you)

(4x)

?The last goodbye of smile and bone!?Why did the love fade away??We had never thought...?Why did the love fade away??We will never fall...

We danced (3x)?

And I'm thanking you for loving me (thanking you)

(6x)
