The pinball cracked,
My sidekick grinned
Too tired to relax
So I let 'em in
The big black blue
My pale green eyes
Too many sides to take this time
To decide

I can't hear the words for the sound of the information
I haven't got a job or an hobby or an occupation
Is this a free load trip or an ordinary situation
Let 'em in, let 'em all in
Let 'em all in, go ahead, let 'em in

The turns styles crash, the tides collide
Too many sides to take this time
To decide
Which way is out
To get me in
Fail, you break
It's your mistake
I've seen you grin

I can't hear the words though the sounds of the information
I haven't got a job, or an hobby or an occupation
Is this a free load trip or an ordinary situation
Let 'em in, let 'em all in
Let 'em all in, go ahead, let 'em in
