Finally
Your love pushed me away
You fell for me
& you fall for me
But you came back too late

Falling in love
You don't have to let go
& I heard your song on the radio
This love tragedy
Burning inside me

Where did you?
How could know
That mine was real
& yours was not for sure?

Where did you?
How could I know
That I felt you
When I heard you on the radio?

Wondering
How I could make this change
Every choice that I can make
It all works out the same

This love tragedy
Burning inside me

Falling in love
You don't have to let go
& I figured it out
When I heard you on the radio
