It's too late to walk away from this now
You're too late and I'll start telling you how
You never had it
You never had it anyway

Not looking back now
I can't afford the gas it took to get me here
Life's too short for pointless beer
I'm giving everything I've got
So take these words with more than open ears
I've given six whole years to this
And I'm tired of this sh*t

Don't forget
Don't put your guard down yet
It's a game we play, so tired of losing everyday

Haven't we gone over this before?
We tried a million times so what's once more?

It's too late to walk away from this now
I'm over this and our played out tracks
It's just all the same
Can't wait till this ends

Another day feeling like this
Another day feeling like life's all the same
And I'm not sure if I can take
When every chance I take just comes right back to me

And I'll say for once how I really feel
I wanted you to know that I can see right through you

Haven't we gone over this before?
We tried a million times so what's once more?
And I'll tell you now, no more bringing me down
Not today
Not today

(No more chances)

[x2]

I don't think I've got the time
I'm done wasting my mind
I'm done wasting my time
I'm done

(No more chances)
[x2]

(No more chances)
[Repeat until the end]
