Sick of wasting my breathe
For the past few years
An unfortunate case
Cause I'm failing faster
Losing my way feels like it's been forever

This is how you can help me fulfill my dreams
This is the person I've been dying to be
It's gonna take time
I'll have to look inside
To make sure what I'm doing is right

I've walked around this town all alone and
We've been better than you now we can show it
Can you accept it?
You gotta face it
I think it's time to move on
(2, 3, 4!)

We won't stop, stop
To this beat we're pumping
We rock 'til we drop (we rock!)
We won't stop, we've got it

Hard, hard as the drugs you're popping
The easiest way to escape from the world

Turn up your radio, just let go
A simple equation none of us know
How do we get to the core of your heart?
How do we get to the top?

Just close your eyes and count to 10
Before you know it, you're 10 steps ahead
I've been working for this night and day
I can feel my luck's about to change

How can you say that it's life you hate
When it's problems you
Can't seem to shake?
You've got to trust me

We can relate
Maybe we can help them go away

I've walked around this town all alone and
I think it's time to move on

We won't stop, stop
To this beat we're pumping
We rock 'til we drop (we rock!)
We won't stop, we've got it

Hard, hard as the drugs you're popping
The easiest way to escape from the world

Turn up your radio, just let go
A simple equation none of us know
How do we get to the core of your heart?
How do we get to the top?

From the time we say goodnight
'Til the sunrise brings a brand new morning
We won't even shut our eyes

From the time we say goodnight
'Til the sunrise brings a brand new morning
Hold on, hold on
Don't stop believeing, you'll be living a lie
Hold on

Turn up your radio, just let go
A simple equation none of us know
How do we get to the core of your heart?
How do we get to the top?

From the time we say goodnight
'Til the sunrise brings a brand new morning
