I finally found a way back into your stare
And when I took you back you told me I was always there
Then you close your eyes and hide inside your head
And when you run away you told me I was better then

Said well, Rosary, we can find a way around
Even if you run away, I will find a way to hold you around.

We said let's go away to a place we thought we left Where we can close our eyes and then pretend that we were kids
And if I fall away, you'll be my guiding eyes
Even if we run away, we'll find a place to hide

You said, well, Rosary, we can find a way around Even if I run away, I will find a way to hold you around

Said, well, Rosary, we can find our way around Even if we run away, we can find a way to hold you,
hold you down
Hold you down.
Even if you run
Even if you run

They found me in a hole behind your house
A little dusty, shaken up, and hollowed out
I'll follow you to make sure you got home
Then I saw you had someone to hold you,

I was lost.

I said well, Rosary, we can find our way around
Even if you run away, I will find a way to hold you

Said, well, Rosary, we can find a way around Even if you run away, I will find a way to hold you, hold you down.
