

I Dream

"Be a star"

You can start the show, cause I'm good to go
Nothing's gonna stand in my way
I've been thought it all, was afraid to fall
But take a look at me today
I've had my ups and downs and my twists and turns
But I know where my heart burns
If it's inside of you, all you gotta do is set it free
Set it free

You can be anything you want to
If you only fight for what you believe
Remembering what all my friends have told me
You're a star if you truly think you are

I'm fighting a soul and I aim for gold
Nothing's gonna change my mind
So, when things go wrong, it only makes me strong
I am gonna make it in time
As we get to the end, we are only tendend
And we care enough today
We've came a long, long way, now it's time to say here
we go
Here we go

You can be anything you want to
If you only fight for what you believe
Remembering what all my friends have told me
You're a star if you truly think you are
