Uh-uh, Oh-oh, Yeah-yeah-yeah
Do you remember when we used to sit and wonder What it was like on the other side, we would stay up and think about it all night Was the green much greener and did they get a lot of sunshine?
Did they get a lot of sunshine?

We used to list all, all the things we wanted from life
The fame, the fortune, the money to buy a rollercoaster ride
So young and clueless Never appreciated what we had, Never appreciated what we had.

And I've Been There, oh
And it wasn't all that They don't have, half the things that we know have I've been there, turns out we kinda had it alright
The grass is no greener on the other side, the grass is no green on the other side Oh, no, no

I have to tell you just in case you wonder why I've been gone for a while cause it took me that long to see the bigger round Why, it was more complicated, each day that passes by, each day that passes by Now I realize I don't need to drop that fast I'm not gonna analyze, before today goes, now it isn't gonna last
And whatever's happened, I wouldn't take a minute back, I wouldn't take a single minute back.

And I've Been There, oh
And it wasn't all that
They don't have, half the things that we know have
I've been there, turns out we kinda had it alright
The grass is no greener on the other side, no

So walk with me down memory lane

I remember, do you remember?
