I'll stand next to you and you'll stand next to me
You'll try not to move and I'll try not to breathe
I'll stand next to you and you'll stand next to me
We'll both stand alone walking in our sleep

Let me inside your head
I'll never let you in
Where is your innocence
Guess it's already dead
You're miles away from me
Right where I want to be
You're miles away from me, you're miles away

You lay next to me and I'll lay next to you
Shiver in the sheets, stare out at the moon
You lay next to me and I'll lay next to you
We can live a lie, we can live a truth

Your heart is broken
I'll never let you in
Where is your confidence
Guess it's already dead
You've finally broken free
Right where I want to be
You're miles away from me, you're miles away

You can't do for me like I can't do for you

Let me inside your head
I'll never let you in
Let's put this thing to bed
Guess it's already dead
You're miles away from me
Right where I want to be
You're miles away from me, you're miles away
