Set your fire and let it burn
It's only hours til I return
So keep me with you and stay warm tonight
It's alright if you get scared
There's still a little of child in you now
It's always there
So light a fire for me and let it burn
The life between can get so dark
So patiently my love will start a little fire for me and
Let it burn

The first time I held you in my arms
I knew I had to be moving on
So keep me with you tonight and light a fire for me
The life between can get so dark
Tonight my love will light a spark
The life between can get so dark
So patiently my love will start a little fire for me and
Let it burn
