"Walk Away"

Visit "Walk Away" on MotoLyrics.com

It's just like you to ruin every happy situation
When things were right you had to make them wrong,
and always did
I finally got strong enough to pack it in and walk away

Walk away, walk away
Leave your side today
Walk away, walk away
Leave it all today

It's never easy for someone to go through separation Ironically, you know I love you and I always will As I look back though, I have no regrets for leaving you that day
You know I followed my heart through all my decision-making
You wanted to but didn't, so I leave you with this thought
Don't be afraid in any case to pack it in and walk away

It's just like you to ruin every happy situation
When things were right you had to make them wrong,
and always did
I finally got strong enough to pack it in and walk away
