She got the moves and she got the power
She knows the truth and she calls the thunder
She does ballet and she's got a black belt
She's not afraid to cast all the bad spells

And when she looks my way
Something in me caves

Oh She knows she got a hold on me
Oh she's sacrilege and destiny
Oh it's more than what the eye can see
Secretly
I know she
She's got sorcery (x4)

She doesn't care what you think about her
Jet black hair and eyes like the tiger
Has all the fun and flies with the jet set
Did the Kessel run in under 12 parsecs

But when her eyes meet mine
I can see inside

Oh She knows she got a hold on me
Oh she's sacrilege and destiny
Oh it's more than what the eye can see
Secretly
I know she
She's got sorcery
She's got sorcery
She's got sorcery
She's got sorcery
