A pathological government told be of another Vietnam and said

"If you lose sight while you're searching, we'll find you a target and rise

Our unity"

Then the witch-hunt starts to come within

But not for a while

Wealth or the "innocent"

You're either with us or against us

You better understand

We're not slipping

Just looking for the answers

There's nothing we don't know about you

Finance, structure, religion

Indoctrination won't be broken down

Death tolls don't compromise position

What we bury deep will rest alone

Now it seems we're cut from the living

On the outside or the darkest skids of town

And the neighbours talk and hiss at long-dyed hair

Metal tapes

The underground

Anti-this finds fault with anti-that

And our ghetto wars

Tear each other apart

The rent cheques finds the bottles

A toast to us hiding here's to us being exposed

We're not slipping

Just looking for the answers

There's nothing we don't know about you

Finance, structure, religion

Indoctrination won't be broken down

Death tolls don't compromise position

What we bury deep will rest alone

In the shopping malls that are built on graveyards

In the funding for this warlord government

These roots of evil turning up again
