

I Hate Sally "Wake Up Screaming"

Visit "Wake Up Screaming" on MotoLyrics.com

There was no escape
It was no passing phase for the thousands held at gunpoint
Digging their own graves
Or for those used to fuel the fires
Or as slaves in factories Or those dying for an empire that would crumble to it's knees

Do you see their bloodied faces when you close your eyes?
Or hear their breaking voices begging for their lives?

Kill anything that moves Anything that breathes Twenty-five years later wake up screaming from your dreams
The smell of burning flesh
Etched in memory
Remnants of a war that will never sleep
