When you carry yourself through the room
Youthful... to drag no broom,
We smoked the last cigarette
I closed my eyes and took in your breath.

Give yourself a minute to catch your breath.

It's your turn to roll the ball
You drenched your breath right behind the chill,
We smoked the last cigarette
I closed my eyes and took in your breath.

Give yourself a minute to catch your breath
Give yourself a minute to catch your breath
Give yourself a minute, figure out wonders.

All of your friends are now ghosts
On the last road to go before we go.

If they only had some... they will run,
They associate... and they went nothing.

I weld the last ride
I weld the last ride,
I weld the last ride
I weld the last ride with you.
