Rise! We can't hold back this anger.
We must invoke the rage, left inside.
Let anger fuel our hate, be the basis of all new days.
Change ideas and expectations, for the better.
with all the lies, greed, and mistrust.
Hating life until you turn to dust.
We cant just be another victim, any more.

I wont fall in line, and conform.
We need a change, in the way that we live our lives.

we need to change what we see fit.
For all the times we didn't stand by our beliefs,
lets show our message for the world to see.
I know that its words that change minds, and I hope that in time they'll here mine.
I know i have, but i hope that we have had enough.
I know i have, I hope we have had enough
