

I Rise

"When Fear Turns To Hate"

When time passes us by and you don't. you don't know,
you don't know what to do.

Living your life living your life living your life, only until its time to die.

And you strive for the best you wish for the best you want success.

You do anything. You kill and you seal get caught and you squeal,

your only concern in life is yourself.

You back down from no one, but no one seems to care.

You act hard for impressions, but everyone's got their fucking scares to bare.

So you keep living your life, living your life,

your living your life, until your eyes grow cold.

And now your life has faded, view grown jaded, and fear turns to hate.

No one said life was gonna be easy.

It's all about the decisions you make.

Your life, So full of lies.

You use your pride as a fucking disguise.

You turn to hate as an easy way out,

Just another motherfucker filled with fear and doubt.

No one said life was gonna be easy.

No one ever said
