So did anybody tell you?
It looks like we got let down and I don't know if you even care but I just thought you might, 'cause you were there You know what I say about it I know you say that I say too much but don't try to tell me I was wrong when I told you that you're going to look back you'll look back

I won't think about it this time we'll get by 'cause we'll never go home and
I won't think about it this time
we'll get by, we'll get by now you're turning on the radio turn it up, and we'll sing real loud do you remember that song that we used to play we wrote about this town, it seems like it was yesterday you know what I think about her I know you think that I think too much I can't believe that a week from now you'll close your eyes and you'll feel just fine just fine

I won't think about it this time
we'll get by 'cause we'll never go home and
I won't think about it this time

On that night when we were driving home
In Colorado, I could hear you breath Tempers flared and tempers flaring
I never wanted anything so bad

We'll get by, we'll get by
