She's been looking over at me all day tried to think of something to say
But I just can't make it right
And she's been following me everywhere
I can see the sunlight shining in her hair
Long after darkness has fallen

She was waiting by the door
When I showed up at three AM
She said "I waited for you."

We'll make it home tonight, she'll make it right
Three days till Rome, we'll make it home
Three days till Rome, we'll make it home

Sorry if I seem a little tired from All the time that we spent in the van
But I never learned how to say "no"
Lee told me to let it go
And save the story
until we're back out on the road

She was sleeping on the bed
When I showed up at three AM
She said "I waited for you."

We'll make it home tonight, she'll make it right
Three days till Rome, we'll make it home
Three days till Rome, we'll make it home

We'll make it home tonight, she'll make it right
Three days till Rome, we'll make it home
Three days till Rome, we'll make it.....

Found a note sitting on the bed
When I showed up at three AM
It said "I waited for you."
