We found ourselves in clueless company, and spoke of things we could not repeat

We've trapped our tongues and stumbled on our
midnight steps,

And oh how I know you best, your the troublesome mess, but I would cut every corner to find you

There are simple routes we can follow, there's so many things we can do, but We're all tied up and oh so lost on our smallest adventures

things we can't do,

But we're all tied up and oh so lost on our smallest

Ohh love believe we could be complete, I'll take these terms for what I feel they're worth

We found ourselves in clueless company, and spoke of things that we should not repeat

We've trapped our tongues and stumbled on our
midnight steps,

And oh how I know you best, your the troublesome
mess, but I still cut every corner to find you

And ohh love believe we could be complete, I'll take these terms for what I feel they're worth

Ohh love believe we could be complete, I'll take these
terms for what I feel they're worth

Ohh love believe we could be complete
