[Lyrics: Demonaz. Music: Abbath]

Enshrined on the burial ground

On the path to the cemetary gates

My grave sunk in the river to the cemetary pit

Spiritual voices called through chilling smoke

Frozen visions of a dying realm

Under a blasting sky

Hate rises from an infernal tomb

A shadow with black wings

Eternal years on the path to the cemetary gates

In the chains of cold with the hate to all

Eternity surround me I am real as the earth

As dark winds fade away no one knows where I am
gone

Tasting the cold from the shining gates

As snow fall from the sky

Thirsting for the realms of frost

At the end of the gate I wont stop but spread my wings

As dark winds fade away no one knows where I am
gone
