Eyes of stone
Eyes of ice are watching me
Their glimpsing light comes in my sleep
Chained in a dream from the ancient deeps
Mindtravelling the darkest paths
Eyes of stone
Eyes of ice are haunting me
Their burning light comes in the night
Awaken from a dream but still I'm in
Mindtravelling the darkest paths
Come with me
I promise you the darkest desires
Come with me
I promise you a dimension that's higher
Follow me through the unending
On a path where crystals breathe
And night and day are the same
Enter to a grimmer dark for us to be
Eyes of stone
Eyes of ice are watching me
Their glimpsing light comes in my sleep
Chained in a dream from the ancient deeps
Mindtravelling the darkest paths
