I need tonight just as much as you do
But I'm up here and you're out there
At least I have your attention
I wanna be close to you
This distance will never do
Hey, hey, can you take me
Take me away

How can my eyes pass the time
Why don't you scream, scream for me
Push through the lines, hold me tight
Make me, make me scream

I need your eyes just as much as you do
But I'm up here and you're out there
Well lets keep it that way cause I would never change
The time that I'm close to you
This distance will never do
Hey, hey, can you take me
Take me away

How can my eyes pass the time
Why don't you scream, scream for me
Push through the lines, hold me tight
Make me, make me scream
[X2]

I've missed you time and time again
But I see you waiting till the end
Push through the lines, hold me tight
Make my lips scream take me away
Take me away

How can my eyes kill all the time
While your lips scream for me
Push through the lines
Pull me so tight
Make my lips scream

How can my eyes pass the time
Why don't you scream, scream for me
Push through the lines, hold me tight

Make me, make me scream
[X2]
