drain this blood from me.
take back this name you gave.
i don't want you branded on me.
bloodline of guilt.
your hate.
my solitude is my fate.
everything i hated in you is now inside of me.
i want to tear you out and this is all you gave to me.
so how can i live with myself cursed in the womb?
i know this was beaten in you.
your voice of hate runs through my head.
now all i want is to see you dead.
drain this blood from me.
curse of the womb.
i want to see you dead.
