I've been pushed and pulled and dragged
Always told where to go
I've been fed and forced and filled
They engraved everything I know

Never question their laws or gods
I'd be shot on site
I fall in line, give up my mind
And live their fucking lives

Before I knew it, I'm just like them
Before I knew it, I'm fucking dead

And do we really believe
That we are even alive?
I'm living and breathing
Building my own way

Those things that mean so much
Don't mean a thing to me

Before I knew it, I'm just like them
Before I knew it, I'm fucking dead

Look at yourself, you're fucking dead
Fucking dead, look at yourself
Look at yourself, you're fucking dead
Fucking dead, fucking dead
