My sacrifice

I'm looking at you face to face
I'm staring at you in the eye
I'm so alone in this fucking crowd
I won't unite with what I despise

My sacrifice, I'd give it all
To share some life

Whether you like this or not
This is where I belong
Throw all you've got at me
But I'll shove it all back down your throat

My sacrifice, I'd give it all
To share some life
I'd share some life
I'd share some life

For the new faces I'll fucking fight
For the true few who deserve respect
I'll fucking fight

My sacrifice
