"Stand Tall"

Na na na na na na na
It's just another Saturday
That's gone to waste

I'm tired of fighting every
Battle in the world except for mine
I take it for granted that there's Always someone right here by my side

Stand tall
I know the weight of the world
Won't bring me down
Stand tall
I gotta let it go

I've managed to let myself go
How I wish the world could let go too

It's something I think about
When I find myself with nothing else to lose

Stand tall
You know the weight of the world
Won't bring you down
Stand tall
You gotta be who you are

Stand tall
You gotta let it
You gotta let it
You gotta let it
Stand tall
You gotta let it go

Na (x14)
Na na
Na (x14)
Na na
Na (x14)
Na na

Stand tall
I know the weight of the world
Won't bring you down
Stand tall
You gotta be who you are

Stand tall
You know the weight of the world
Won't bring you down
Stand tall
You gotta be who you are

Stand tall
You gotta let it
You gotta let it
You gotta let it
Stand tall
You gotta let it go

It was just another Saturday
