Laugh now,
Man are from heaven,
Laugh now,
Laugh now

Laugh now,
We're coming together,
Laugh now,
Laugh now

If wishes were horses,
The beggars would rise,
And raise up their voices,
To golden red skies

I'm moving up further,
I'm swimming upstream,
I'm digging my best, I'm holding onto the tree

Laugh now,
I'm waiting forever,
Laugh now,
Laugh now

Laugh now,
Travelling farther,
Laugh now,
Laugh now

If wishes were horses,
The beggars would rise,
And raise up their voices,
To golden red skies

Laugh now,
Laugh now,
Laugh now,
Laugh now

I can see where they're coming,
From the tops of the trees,

Feel the heat of the sunshine, feel the cool of the breeze,
I can't take any of this,
'Cause I do what I please,
But I see your reflection and it's shining on me

Laugh now,
And I'm laughing louder,
Laugh now,
Laugh now

You're spoilt for chances,
You have to decide,
Are you gonna be there the day the dead gonna rise?
