As a legend long forgotten by time
The untold story from our dreams
Now he opens the eyes again
He is the one who has the power
Fire on black wings
The dragon shall...fly again!
His sound resounds in my head
They touch my soul and open my mind
An answer of life I couldn't understand
But why am I the chosen one?
The meaning of the sign
An open path to the sky!
Fly mighty dragon
To all those open skies
We shall turn into eternity
Believe in our cry!
"The spirits of nature are calling again

Back to the time when it all once began
I walk through the forest to follow the call
Feeling it in me...
Fire, wind, water and earth
Rise up to the skies as many ages ago
Hear the silence that's growing high My spirit flies free.."
Crossing the seas to reach a new land
Looking on forward for a different life
In the skies the stars shine bright
But will they be forever there?
That's a question you won't understand
I can tell you immortality...
