Well I finally found you out

All through your mess of dreams

You won't make it to the night

And your standing in my light

You know you've been bad for me

You ain't got the weight to hate

But you ain't no pretty sight

And your standing in my light

Move over cause your standing in my light

Move over cause your standing in my light

Move over cause your standing in my light (yeah)

Move over cause your standing in my light

Now when your old man beats the drums

Gotta run run run that's dumb

A little less ego a little more fight

Move over cause your standing in my light

The years go by and the rich get high
Sweeping dead bodies 'cross an open sky

You took my pictures from your walls

Ain't gonna trade with the pain of the new york dolls

Move over cause your standin in my

(move over cause your standin in my)

Move over cause your standin in my

(move over cause your standin in my)

Move over cause you standin in my

(move over cause your standin in my)

Move over cause you standing in my light

Move over cause your standing in my light

Move over cause your standing in my light

Move over cause your standing in my light

Move over cause your standing in my light

Move over cause your standing in my light
yeah.....alright

Move over cause your standing in my light

I wish you luck on your very last chance

Cause I knew you blew it at the song and dance

You froze my feelings, but thats alright

And your standing in my light
