And when the war was over I went dancing in the streets with the corpse of my dead brother to the sacrificial beat the Boy Scouts and the Legionnaires come home from overseas singing Glory Hallelujah! to the swank Gestapo beat

Hallelujah
I've never been In the whole of my life an intelligent sacrifice
Hallelujah
Give me a reason to go on believing and I'm ready to pay the price

I heard of a plan in the president's mansion (high up in the sky)

It called for a sacrifice and my brother paid the price

Sent him home in a bag, Tha American flag was draped around the box
The coffin lid was locked
The note said Thanks a lot

Some and dance with me
I'm home from overseas
I'm a corpse up to my knees
Celebrate the victory

Do you want to dance and hold me tight?
I'm feeling most diseased but I'm easier to please

Come and dance
