In the morning
Lay You down in tender grace
In the morning
The sunlight plays upon Your face

And all I want is You

Like a baby
I find salvation in Your eyes
You have saved me
From darkest and the blackest nights

And all I know is You
All I know is You

In the morning
Making love slowly fades
In the morning
A body's bled and wanna say

And all I am is You
All I am is You

All I am is You
All I am is You
All I am, I am is You
