"Love Without End"

Love without end, give me love without end.
Like that star in the west, ah keep on blazing.
Sleep through the night, sleep all through the night.
With that one by your side, softly breathin'.
Empty house, the children grown, an old man rides
these hills alone.
How long, how long, will it take to find me?
Love without end, once I had love without end.
Then I road away, and I left it behind me.

Solo:

Work it out, it don't take long, suddenly you're strong.
But I don't know what you do, about the lonely.
Love without end, who has seen love without end?
Maybe love without end, is in God's eyes, only.

Solo:

Maybe love without end, is for God's eyes, only.
