I like old corrals and sagebrush
Ponderosa pines
Cowgirls in old pickup trucks
California wines
I love them old time waltzes
[Sung by] George Jones and Emmy Lou
But I'd like nothing better
Than to lay these eyes on you.

Chorus:
I'd like nothing better
Than to lay these eyes on you.
Lord knows I ain't seen you in a while.
There'd be nothing sweeter
Than to spend the night with you
Wake up to the magic of your smile.

'Cause you're all that I've ever wanted
Little rainbow of my own
And how I'd love to hear you sing
The Rose of San Antone
I have so many memories
And they'll have to see me through
Until that day that I can say
Let me lay these eyes on you.

[Alt. vs]
Your all I ever needed
Little rainbow of my own
And how you'd say as we'd ride away
Sing that Rose of San Antone, honey
But I was travelling fast and light
Like some old time buckaroo
And I'd like nothing better
Than to lay these eyes on you.

Chorus

Repeat vs 1
I'd like nothing better
Than to lay these eyes on you.
