Another sleepless night I open up my eyes I found the reason why

I feel the time has come To make it on my own I'm heading for the sun

I'm walking away To find a brighter day I'm walking

I'm walking away [x4]

I still feel safe and sound But it's time to break new ground And turn my life around I've wasted too much time On things I could not find I leave this place behind
