Hey you, show me how to feel
I'm carrying a gun but there's nothing to steal
With bloodshot eyes guess it's time for a healing
Hey man, join our band
Open up your heart and let her expand
Sing to the world till they understand
You gotta crack the sky then drink it all down
Sing in the city with that old folk sound
We are the love and the love is bound
We are the love and the love is lightning
One land, one heart
Let's get together then break apart
Cover me, quarter to three
Driving through the night to Tennessee
Got me a gig at 3rd and Lindsley
Trickle down, shadow bound
I'll call you in the morning when my eyes are found
Cause sometimes you have to burn
When the fire's hot you know it's time to unlearn
You gotta crack the sky then drink it all down
Sing in the city with that old folk sound
We are the love and the love is bound
We are the love and the love is lightning
One land, one heart
Let's get together then break apart
Poor man, what are you worth?
Heading to the desert for another re-birth
Open up your eyes you're the salt of the earth
Rich man...
Because sometimes you slip the fear
When the fire's hot you're gonna disappear
You gotta crack the sky then drink it all down
Sing in the city with that old folk sound
We are the love and the love is bound
We are the love and the love is bound
Crack the sky...
Sing in the city with that old folk sound
We are the love and the love is bound
We are the love and the love is lightning
Hold me, mold me
Break down the door so boldly
