Now I have seen the glory
And you will see the fun.
And we will fight together
Like father and son.
Cause I am done.
Yes I have won.

In the winter lies a naked man
With a horse and a gun.
I shall never see his face again,
Cause I am done.

Now boy, you know the story.
Fight and you shall win.
And if you roll the dice right,
You'll be the next of kin.
Cause I am done.
Yes I have won.

In the winter lies a naked man
With a horse and a gun.
I shall never see his face again,
Cause I have won.

In the winter lies a naked man
With a horse and a gun.
I shall never see his face again,
Cause I have won.
Cause I have won.
Cause I...

We're gonna take over the world
