

Ice Ages "Heartbeat"

Visit "Heartbeat" on MotoLyrics.com

Here my heart; my heartbeat is your time Feel this trembling sound, take care don't let it plunge you into misery

Dreadful dreams will be your home divine In your narrow mind, a torturous path will lead you to your enemy

Mindless lives will greet you from afar Walls that bind their minds will be for you the boarder to your emptiness Breath this life like it will breath in you.
Come out of your shell, believe in me- your eyes will see just endlessness.

Take this forces if you like
Leave your memories here, in my forgotten soul Drag your burdens to the dark
Let them be beside mine- in obscurity
