Real niggas in this bitch nigga,
We'll pop deuces, we cop bottles
Go crochiere with them shits nigga
Too much money over here
Too many real niggas with me

For a bitch not to feel

[Hook]

We the hottest, nigga, I know, I know, I know
My bitch bad and she body nigga, I know, I know, I know
Hold up, and I'm the truth, yeah I know
Ain't no shit you can do, I know
But watch me turn up and make some motherfucking
room

My homie beat another job
Now we try to find another route, the life out is going hard
Young nigga getting paper
Too many motherfuckers love us to be worried bout a hater
Independent nigga, shitting on majors
I've been the shit since my daddy was riding dating
And yeah there's still a nigga screaming fuck the other side
Middle finger up, fuck the other side
Nigga better duck when we busting out
Like a good girl nigga we ain't fucking round
Higher than a kite, we fucked up an ounce
What we smoke will have a rookie jumping up and down
Smoking gas, lace it up with portant am
Pass around, how the bitches talking bad
And I don't give a damn if my hoes shit
But if you fuck with broke niggas, don't fuck with me
And I'm hustling each and every day
I'm tryina get it each and every way
Niggas hating but they ain't stopping shit
Get out the way we on some other shit

[Hook]

We the hottest, nigga, I know, I know, I know
My bitch bad and she body nigga, I know, I know, I
know
Hold up, and I'm the truth, yeah I know
Ain't no shit you can do, I know
But watch me turn up and make some motherfucking

We getting money like the dream team
The players and the lawyers go against us, it's a clean sweep
Hunned round base drum, I swear player need beats
Since niggas want fame, I'ma have they ass on amn
Prime time action, get on national tv
Them killers ain't taxin, they'll whack you just for me 3
Keep it people from round you for they see this shit in 3d
Just ask what's the name, never mind, that clown dc
Seen my first hunned and thought I was john gotti
Had a bitch in my room, one way in in the lobby
I'm just tryina live life baby
I promise you could be my wife
But only for tonight baby
Oh you ain't easy, I know, I know, I know
You just came over here to chill and watch tv Baby please save your game for a sucker who gonn pay you
I don't fuck everything walking, I'd rather chase paper
So be grateful girl
And I'm hustling each and every day
I'm tryina get it each and every way
Get out the way we on some other shit

[Hook]

We the hottest, nigga, I know, I know, I know
My bitch bad and she body nigga, I know, I know, I
know
Hold up, and I'm the truth, yeah I know
Ain't no shit you can do, I know
But watch me turn up and make some motherfucking
room.
