Well I think you took your chances,
You gotta take the consequences.
And you'll never know,
I'm holding on.

Let go...

'Cause I'm not so sure,
You look so good.
And I've seen this all before,
And this could be real.
Even if it is...

It's not enough, it's not enough!
And it's never gonna be.
Between the lies and the love I'll rise above,
And I'll find a way to leave.
Now it's inside of is inside of us,
It's the price of being free.
And it's the price I was willing to pay...
If that's all it takes.

And if it won't make any difference,
I'm gonna make my peace with silence.
And if it takes a toll,
It takes it's toll.
You'll never know...

If this is real.
I can't take it even if it is!

Because it's not enough, it's not enough.
And it's never gonna be.
Between the lies and love I'll rise above,
And I'll find a way to leave.
Now it's inside of us inside of us,
It's the price of being free.
And it's the price I was willing to pay...
If that's all it takes.

Because it's not enough,

A thousand words can't paint you a picture of what you deserve!

'Cause this is something I can't live for,
And this is one thing I can say...
That I know the way down,
Is the way out for me.

We'll find a way!
To throw away what we had today.
I'd kill myself just to find a way...
'Cause I know the way down,
Is the way out for me...

We'll find a way!
And it's never gonna be.
Between the lies and love I'll rise above,
And I'll find a way to leave.
Now it's inside of us inside of us,
It's the price of being free.
And it's the price I was willing to pay...
If that's all it takes.
